Disparity Map

A disparity map, referred to as a depth map, is an image which contains depth information of every pixel stored in it. The term disparity in stereo vision refers to the apparent shift in pixel or motion in a pair of stereo images

Image_left

Image_right

Disparity Map